

VERNACULAR VIDEO MISSION INTERNATIONAL

2021 ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT FOR DONORS

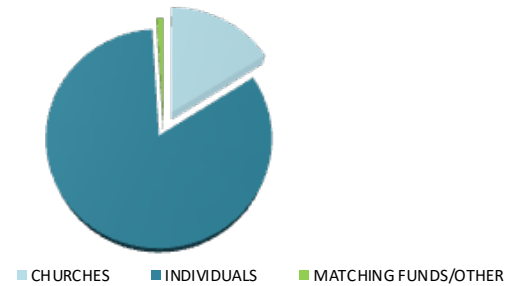

Clockwise from upper left: An AE-ILMAV technician recording the Matses language New Testament using equipment supplied through a VVMI partnership project. The Matses are a largely unreached tribal group who live in the Amazon jungles of Peru and Brazil. ■ Deditos Bible story video dubbing in the Bengali language of Bangladesh and northeastern India. VVMI has consistently assisted Viña Association by supporting the creation of new Deditos episodes. These are being dubbed into many languages all over the world. For this particular project, VVMI is an active prayer partner. ■ A newly "mobilized" church planting/disciple-making team on Samar Island, Philippines, being trained to use a projection system for vernacular film showings. During 2021, God's Spirit was poured out on Samar, with over 1500 print and audio Bibles being requested for new believers. ■ In 2021, VVMI heard about hundreds of baptisms related to local churches' film showing ministry coupled with disciple-making Bible studies. Shown here, new believers baptized on Masbate Island, Philippines, in
